The train carried about 150 prisoners, including some thirty Italians and Belgians.

PRISON INMATES WILL NOT BE INDICTED
Washington, Sept. 5.—Inmates of state prisons, federal penitentiaries and jails will not be indicted into the army under the new manpower law. Nevertheless such prisoners between the ages of 18 and 45 years will be required to register on Sept. 12. It is announced today by Provost Marshal Gen. Crowder.
Inmates of every prison and penitentiary will be registered by the warden, and the required reports will be filed with the adjutant-general of each state. Such reports, however, will not be included by the adjutant-general in his consolidated state report, it is announced.
Persons awaiting trial, and those convicted merely of misdemeanors, however, will be regarded as free citizens so far as the manpower law is concerned.
